"The Combat Thickens."

It will be seen from our telegraphic dispatches, this morning, that Senator BIGLER, of Pennsylvania, speaking for the Administration, made a fierce onslaught upon Senator DOUGLAS, on Monday, to which the latter replied in his most vigorous and effective style. It is already quite evident that "the knife" which BUCHANAN & Co. propose "to put to the throats" of all democrats, who hesitate to support the Administration on this Kansas question, will prove a two-edged weapon and cut both ways. Meantime, why is the News dumb on this momentous issue?

OUR CITY HOPELESSLY IN DEBT.—When we stated the facts, a few days since, that our city had issued $1,380,000 in bonds, in aid of Rail Roads, and $576,030, for city account, we supposed that this was the extent of our municipal liabilities, and that, large as was the sum, there was hope of paying it, in time. It appears, however, from the pronunciamento of Mayor CROSS, in the News of yesterday, that there is a still heavier and hopeless debt resting upon our city, shoulders. His Honor, after a very elaborate self-laudation, concludes thus:

"I feel that instead of censure this city owes "me a debt of gratitude which it can never re- "pay."

This being the case, the sooner our city goes into liquidation the better.

For the Sentinel.

Declines Serving.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—I observe that Mr. QUENTIN "declines serving" on the Committee appointed at the Tax-Payers' meeting last week, and thinks "investigation" into past abuses unnecessary and unprofitable. Mr. QUENTIN is further of opinion that we ought all to pay our taxes, without grumbling, and look out next time, and the Wisconsin echoes Mr. QUENTIN.

Now I am curious to know if Mr. QUENTIN wrote that communication because he is the partner of one of our City Aldermen, or because he has been designated as Mr. CROSS' successor by Cross' friends, or because he owns and has been the agent for selling a large amount of City securities during the past year. Let me say to Mr. QUENTIN that when he grows older and wiser, he will discover that the best method of promoting the true interests of Milwaukee, as well as his own is to show up abuses in the past and thereby prevent them in the future, as proposed at the Tax-Pay Meeting last week.

Although Mr. QUENTIN "faints by the way," I hope that the Investigation will go on, and that the corruption, extravagance, waste and mismanagement of our City Administration will be exposed to the light of day. Thus and thus only, can we thoroughly wake up the people to the necessity of "Retrenchment and Reform."

A TAX PAYER.

Milwaukee, Dec. 22d.

THE TAX-BILLS—SOMETHING QUEER.—Our readers are already aware that the aggregate City Tax has been raised from $120,000 last year to $350,000 this year—an increase of One Hundred and Fifty per Cent. This is bad enough, but it is not the worst of it. The increase in the whole tax list being 150 per cent, the proportionate increase on individual tax-bills should be the same. Instead of this, however, almost every Tax Payer, who has called at the Treasurer's office to get his little bill, finds his taxes increased two, three, four, and, in some instances, even five fold, over last year. This argues gross inequality in the levying of the taxes, and is one of the points to which the attention of the Investigating Committee may well be directed.

WELSH VOTES.—A correspondent at Genesee, Waukesha County, writes to us, expressing his opinion that the "mystery" of Secretary Jones' re-election is to be found in his receiving the "Welsh" vote, which has generally been Republican. We don't think so. In Columbia, Racine and Waukesha counties, largely settled by Welshmen, Mr. Jones leads his ticket only about a hundred. The mystery is of quite a different order, and just no mystery at all.

GOOD GRIT.—The Democrat, organ of the unterrified German democracy of Washington Co., supports Douglas in his contest with the Administration, and hoists his name for President in 1860. We admire the spunk of the little Democrat.

KANSAS ELECTION.—Monday was the day fixed upon by the Lecompton Convention for the people of Kansas to vote whether they would or would not have slavery in the Constitution, the document itself meantime recognizing Slavery and perpetuating it. What the Legislature lately in session did with reference to the subject we have not learned. Advices from that quarter are looked for with anxiety.

ANOTHER SET-TO IN THE SENATE.—Douglas and Bigler had another running fight in the Senate on Monday; Bigler, as usual, getting the worst of it. Douglas' reported remarks show that the manner in which he is treated by the ultra Pro-Slavery faction touches him to the quick.

☞ Mr. Joseph Dollar left for Wausau on last Monday morning with a pack of 100 lbs. mail matter. Should he go through unaided, it will certainly be one of the most remarkable feats of packing ever performed in this country; all the accompanying circumstances of unbroken trail, distance, &c., duly considered.—Ontonagon Miner, 8th.

XXXVth Congress—First Session.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21st.

SENATE.—The Senate adopted a joint resolution, by a vote of 32 to 12, providing that when the House adjourned on Wednesday, it will be to the 4th of January.

Mr. Wilson introduced a bill granting a million acres of land for the benefit of public schools in the District of Columbia.

Mr. Bigler made a long speech in vindication of the President's policy in Kansas as given in his message. In his opinion, the great speech of the Senator from Illinois was, after all, a meagre structure, resting upon a very unsound foundation. He could not understand why the Senator should have shown so much willingness to weaken public confidence in the policy of the men of his own party, whom he had assisted to place in power. He could discover no purpose of public policy, the attainment of which required the Senator to do these things, or to deal in an ungenerous manner with the President.—The allegation that that venerable statesman had fallen into fundamental error, as to the meaning of the Kansas Nebraska bill, because he was out of the country at the time of its passage, was not worthy of the Senator. Mr. Bigler proceeded to sustain the legality of the Lecompton movement.

Mr. Douglas replied, saying he had no fault to find with the Senator from Pa., for making a series of attacks on his consistency while omitting to answer his arguments. Some persons had furnished him with the record of the votes of the Senators on the Wilmot proviso and some former speeches relative to Kansas matters. He knew not whether they were true or false, or what they had to do with the question now presented. He did not understand the motives for ransacking the public records and newspapers, and picking up every little scrap to see what his course had been for twelve years past on the subject of slavery.

Mr. Douglas wanted to know by what authority Mr. Bigler said the Lecompton movement was an Administration measure. The Message does not say so. Had he any higher authority than that? Mr. Bigler replied that he had made the deduction from the Message, and from what he knew in addition. He did not assert in terms it was an administration measure, but said the administration held the movement legal so far as it had progressed. How could the President make a recommendation prior to the result of the vote, which he says in his Message he is waiting for.

Mr. Douglas replied that he should like to know what other sources of information Mr. Buchanan had, as that Senator had that much advantage of him.

Mr. Bigler was not at liberty to say that this was an administration measure. He would allow Mr. Douglas to define what it was.

Mr. Douglas again wanted to know what these other sources of information were which authorized Mr. B. to read him out of the party for not sustaining that measure.

Mr. Bigler denied that he said one word about reading any man out of the party. Did Mr. D mean to make an issue with the administration? When he makes an issue can not he tell what it is?

The discussion between the two Senators continued at great length and with a good deal of asperity. Douglas said:

There were persons who desired to get him into a false position for ulterior purposes. He did not mean that men whose claims to the confidence of the Democratic party were not superior to his own should read him out of the party.—The report was being circulated every where that the President is prepared to put the knife to the throat of every man who dares to differ from the Administration and think for himself on this question. He believed those who circulated such reports were enemies to the President. He wished to give his friends an opportunity to deny the charge.

Mr. Bigler—Who makes the charge?

Mr. Douglas—The newspapers of the country are full of it. The Senator seemed to make his argument as if he were outside of a healthy Democratic organization. I do not recognize the right of that Senator or anybody on earth to expel me.

Mr. Bigler—In no shape or form have I been laboring to put the Senator out of the party. It is true, I did show in the question of Slavery that the Senator did not always hold the same position, but I did not say that any man who differed from the Administration on the subject was no Democrat.

Mr. Douglas—I stated that when I changed my opinion, I changed it in correspondence with that of the President in both cases. If that would lead me out of the party it would lead me into very good company. If the President and the Democratic party stick to this platform we can move along harmoniously; but I shall, at all events maintain my position, and shall take all proper occasions to vindicate the great principle with which my public life is identified. I hope, in the discussion of this question, Senators will let me alone in regard to my consistency, and as for my prospects, let time determine.

Mr. Stuart obtained the floor and the further consideration of the subject was postponed.

The Senate passed the House resolutions to pay the arrearages of the members at the commencement, instead of at the end of the session, and $250 per month each during the session. Adjourned.

HOUSE.—The House resumed the consideration of the Treasury Note Bill.

Mr. Abbot, of Maine spoke in opposition.

A lengthy debate ensued, in which Letcher, Campbell, Quitman and Boyce participated.—The two latter avowing themselves in favor of direct taxation and free trade, and Mr. Campbell saying that he would support the bill with modifications. He wished to offer an amendment to the bill imposing an additional increase of duty on carpets, iron, &c. His object was to meet those treasury notes, and provide incidental protection to the industrial pursuits of the country.

The Committee rose, and the Senate's treasury note bill was referred to the Committee on WAYS and MEANS. A resolution was passed limiting the debate on that subject to to-morrow.

Mr. Warren asked, but did not obtain leave, to introduce a preamble, that whereas it appears from the proclamation of Brigham Young, late Governor of Utah, and from the President's message, that said territory is now in open rebellion against the United States, therefore—

Resolved, That the Committee on Territories be instructed to consider and report on facts, and enquire into the propriety of excluding from the seat on the floor of the House the delegate from that territory.

The House then adjourned.

Commercial News by the Adriatic.

NEW YORK, Dec. 21.

The steamship Adriatic arrived this A. M.—She left Liverpool on the 7th at 2 P. M.

LIVERPOOL, Dec. 9.

Cotton market again very dull—sales of three days amounting to only 9,000 bales, of which 2,000 bales were on speculation. Prices rather easier.

London, Wednesday noon.—Consols 91¾@92¼ for money; 91¾@91¾ for account and for dividend.

The Liverpool agent of the associated press says in reference to the above, "This consol statement is telegraphed from London, but I suspect 91¾ should read 91½."

CITY MATTERS.

BOOKS FOR THE HOLIDAYS.—We have already alluded to the bountiful provision made by the authors and booksellers for the children, in the way of beautiful and good books, at all kinds of prices. No one can fail of finding at the stores in the city, something to suit the age and taste of the little ones, and at rates to suit the times.

But the children of an older growth are also provided for abundantly. Contrary to the supposition that the condition of money matters would prevent the publication of the more expensive class of works for the Holidays, the provision seems quite as abundant as ever, if not even more and better than usual. We spent a pleasant hour at KEMPSHALL'S yesterday in looking over the rich and tempting array.

THE book of this year, as the "Republican Court" was of last year, is World-Noted Women, or Types of Womanly Attributes, of all Countries and Ages," by MARY COWDEN CLARKE, got up by the Appletons, in their best style, which is a style nowhere to be surpassed. The book is a magnificent affair in all respects, and does honor alike to the publishers, authors and artist. Seventeen portraits—ideal, doubtless, many of them—but like like with the character of the subject as preserved in history and known—illustrate the book. We have the Roman Lucretia,—the intellectual Aspasia, the friend, the wife, and counsellor of Pericles—the Egyptian Cleopatra, ruler of men who ruled the world—the Laura of Petrarch—Heloise, the beloved of Abelard—St. Cecilia—the French heroine, Joan of Arc—the persistent Margaret of Anjou—Isabella, of Castile, the friend of Columbus—Catharine II of Russia, and others, the series closing with a picture of our modern Saint Filomena, the devoted Florence Nightingale, worthy to shine in such an array of distinguished womanhood. The biographical sketches, and studies of character, by Mary Cowden Clarke, are admirably drawn, and the work deserves far more than a mere centre-table position, as an ornament to the drawing-room. Its letter-press ought to be given to the public in another form for general circulation, for the good lessons which it teaches.

The above work, as we said, is the book of the season; but it is only one of a very rich and tempting assortment. The Irving Vignettes (Putnam) is an elegant volume containing extracts from Irving's various works, illustrated in beautiful style. Bryant's Poems is presented by the Appletons in one volume, in heavy antique binding, the softest and clearest of buff paper, old-fashioned type, and pictures which do not spoil—some pictures do spoil—the pleasure of reading the text.

Payne's Book of Art is a book for those who can appreciate the best of engravings. Some people do not seem to realize the difference between a lithograph, a wood cut, and a steel engraving. Not that we despise the lithograph: HOFFMAN & MEYER have a series by an Austrian artist, which are very remarkable pictures for clearness and beauty.

The Appletons give us new and attractive editions of Campbell's Gertude of Wyoming, and Bloomfield's Farmer's Boy. The Gems of British Art is another superb Gift Book.

But we did not set out to make a catalogue of the books which we glanced at, and we leave a host unnamed. The array of English classics, in substantial as well as attractive bindings—neat, but not gaudy—is large this year, and there is a growing taste for the possession of such valuable books. Of Bibles, Prayer Books and Hymn Books, the variety is wonderful. Call and see KEMPSHALL.

CHESS CLUB IN MILWAUKEE.—Pursuant to a notice published in the Sentinel, quite a number of gentlemen met at the office of WINFIELD SMITH, Esq., in the Juneau Block, on Monday evening, to take measures for organizing a Chess Club in this city. The meeting was organized by electing Mr. WINFIELD SMITH, Chairman, and Mr. E. W. CARPENTER, Secretary. A set of Rules and Regulations, compiled by Judge PAYNE, was then read, and after being discussed and slightly amended, were unanimously adopted for the government of the club. The following officers were then chosen, to serve for one year:

President—WINFIELD SMITH.
Vice President—BYRON PAINE.
Secretary—E. W. CARPENTER.
Treasurer—SIGISMUND WISS.

A committee was next appointed to procure suitable rooms and furniture for the use of the Club. Monday evening was fixed upon for the weekly meetings. And then the meeting adjourned till Saturday evening next, at the same hour and place.

It is anticipated that our Milwaukee Chess Club will start with 40 or 50 members, among them some very good players. The President of the Club, Mr. WINFIELD SMITH, is said to be the best player in our city.

CHRISTMAS DINNER AT THE NEWHALL HOUSE.—We are indebted to Messrs. Kean & Rice, the pains-taking and popular landlords of the Newhall House, for an invitation to dine with them on Christmas day. A copy of the "bill of fare" accompanies and gives point to the invitation.—The array of dishes is a formidable one. Beginning with Green Turtle and Oyster Soups, Salmon Trout, Codfish and Whitefish, and Turkey, Beef, Ham, Mutton, Capon, Goose, Pork and Chickens, served up in all varieties, the bill next promises us Partridges, Wild Turkey, Grouse, Quail, Canvass Back Duck, Venison, Buffalo, Bear, Boar, Westphalia Ham and Pates de foie gras. Following this regiment of game, come Oysters, Clams and Lobsters in every variety; then another detachment of Game, including saddles of Venison, tenderloins of Bear, Wild Turkey, Wild Goose and Wild Duck, more of the superlative Canvass Backs, and any quantity of smaller game. A profusion of Vegetables, side dishes, ornamental dishes, confectionery, and pyramids flank the heavier courses; and the Dessert is an Oasis of fruits, flowers, cakes, pastry and creams. Over leaf, is a very suggestive "Wine List." In short, the Dinner is to be a most complete and magnificent affair, and we hope to be at the Newhall House, Christmas Day, to enjoy it.

PRESENTS FOR THE HOLIDAYS.—Those of our readers who are in search of presents for the Holidays and incline to watches, jewelry, silverware, &c., will find an elegant, rich and varied assortment at VAN CORT'S store, North East corner of Wisconsin and East Water Streets. The prices, too, are fixed "to suit the times," and Mr. VAN CORT is most civil and assiduous in waiting upon customers.

ANNUAL BALL OF THE LIGHT GUARD.—We learn that our Milwaukee Light Guard will give their Annual Ball on the evening of the 8th of January next, one of our Military festivals. The Guard intend that the Ball shall be as attractive and successful as effort and experience can make it.

SOCIAL PARTY.—The proprietors of Smith's hotel, on the corner of Main and Detroit streets, are making preparations for a Social Party, to be given on the evening of the 30th. They intend to make it an agreeable affair, and hope to meet a goodly number of their friends upon the occasion.

THE COSMOPOLITAN MAGAZINE.—Persons who wish to obtain this elegant Magazine, or any other of the popular Monthlies, and to share in the incidental advantages which are offered by the Cosmopolitan Art Union, are reminded that the time is now very short to the last day in which the opportunity will be given them. M. G. Elmore is the agent for this city.

COMMON COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS—MAYOR CROSS PRESIDING.—On Monday evening, the Common Council held a regular meeting. A quorum being present, the Mayor called the meeting to order. Aldermen Busach, Fueldner, Greulick, Hadley, Hoehne, Jennings, Loeffler, Taylor and Wergen were absent.

A number of accounts were presented and referred in the usual manner.

A long petition was read from an individual whose name we did not hear, stating that he had been severely injured by being thrown from his wagon last July, had his leg broken, and was unable to do any work since; also representing the loss and great inconvenience which it had caused him, and that the accident was caused by the imperfect state of a bridge across the Kinnickinnick in the 5th ward, and requesting the Council to allow the sum of $2,000 when they should have investigated the matter. The petition was referred to a Committee for examination.

Alderman Peaslee presented a petition from J. S. Mitchell and R. G. Owens, representing the bad condition of the East end of Huron street—40 feet of the same having been entirely washed away, and requesting the Council to have some thing immediately done to prevent further damage. Referred to the Aldermen of 3d Ward.

A petition from Francis Hoffman, requesting a reduction of his taxes on lot 65 in the 7th ward was referred to the Committee on Taxes.

A petition from Noll and Gross in relation to a special tax for grading on a lot in the 9th Ward was also referred to the same Committee.

A petition from F. Gross, requesting an investigation of the assessed value of his lot, was also referred to the same Committee.

A petition from Patrick Duffey asking the council to allow him the sum of $5,000 in consideration of injuries sustained, by being thrown from his wagon on 11th street, in October last, by which he had lost the use of his arm, and had been laid up since, and also stating that the accident was caused by the bad condition of the street, was referred to the judiciary committee in connection with the city attorney, quite a number of petitions besides those we have mentioned in relation to assessments and taxes were presented and referred to the proper committee.

The commissioners on survey to whom had been referred the petition of A. Ehlebracht and others asking the council to prevent the erection of buildings upon River street, which would alter the line of the street from the way in which it was originally platted, reported that the original laying out of the street was correct. The report was adopted and placed upon file.

Alderman Reed presented a petition, signed by "many Firemen and Tax-payers," requesting the Council to reconsider the resolution authorizing the Chief Engineer and Comptroller to contract for a new machine for Engine Company No. 2. The chair decided that the petition was not in order, being signed fictitiously.

But Alderman Plankinton made a motion in accordance with the petition, which was carried. The resolution was reconsidered and unanimously re adopted.

The committee on old taxes, to whom had been referred the petition of Anson Eldred, reported favorable to granting the petition upon certain conditions.

The same committee, to whom had been referred the petition of S. M. Booth, in relation to a tax for improvement upon lots 44, 45 and 46, on Humboldt Avenue, reported recommending that no action be taken in the matter for the present. Report concurred in.

The same committee, to whom had been referred the petition of D. Weidenfeld and others, requesting an investigation of the assessment upon certain lots belonging to the petitioners, reported reducing the assessed value of that of D. Weidenfeld from $1500 to $160—that of D. Adlers from $1500 to $800—that of J. Phalen from $500 to $50—that of J. Deuster from $500 to $50. Report concurred in, and a resolution to the same effect adopted.

The Finance Committee to whom had been referred the petition of Smith Du Moulin & Co., asking to furnish the Council with copies of their State Directory, reported adverse to granting the same. Report adopted.

The vote refusing to grant the petition of the M. & M. R. R. R. Co., relative to Depot grounds in the 4th ward, was reconsidered, and a resolution adopted granting the request of the Company upon their conditions.

A report from the Comptroller was presented with a statement of the account of W. J. Bell & Co., with the city, showing a balance in their favor of $958,85 due them for commissions.

A resolution authorizing the payment of the same was also offered, and both referred to the Finance Committee.

A communication from the City Attorney in relation to a petition of G. F. Oakley, for damages for injuries to his horse by falling into a hole which was left unguarded, was read and placed on file. The hole was made by the Gas Co., who are according to the report responsible for the damages.

A resolution was adopted authorizing the Mayor and City Clerk, to draw an order in favor of the builders of the Chestnut street bridge, for $1172,08 the amount of three estimates as per contract.

The resolution appointing James Kneeland commissioner of survey for the 4th Ward was reconsidered, and John Ogden appointed in his place.

A resolution was adopted authorizing the Mayor and Clerk to draw an order for $2,500 in favor of L. Button for new machine for Engine Co., No. 6, according to the contract, the same having been delivered and accepted by the committee on Fire Department and Chief Engineer.

An Ordinance to provide for the collection of license money, was read and referred to the committee on license.

Adjourned for two weeks.

All About Salt.

MILWAUKEE, Dec. 22.

ED. SENTINEL.—The following lucid paragraph appears in the commercial column of the News of this morning:

"Salt has advanced in price the stocks in the city, having been purchased, being now confined to one or two firms."

As you are somewhat posted as to the style the bright Reporter of the News adopts in relieving his burdened brain, perhaps you will be good enough to explain the meaning of the above extract, which is about as intelligible as Hindostanee to TE-UNE.

ANNUAL BALL OF THE LIGHT GUARD.—We learn that our Milwaukee Light Guard will give their Annual Ball on the evening of the 8th of January next, one of our Military festivals. The Guard intend that the Ball shall be as attractive and successful as effort and experience can make it.

THE ORPHANS' FESTIVALS.—Active preparations are being made for the Annual Festival for the benefit of the Protestant Orphan Asylum, which takes place at Albany Hall on the evening of the 29th inst. It will be an interesting affair, and we trust the benevolent object is sufficient to call out enough of our citizens to make it highly successful.

The Festival of St. Rose's Asylum takes place the following evening at the same place, which we hope will also be liberally attended.

POLICE COURT, DEC. 22.—Henry Einen was fined $10 and costs for being disorderly.

N. K. Albee and John Keir were fined $1 each for fast driving on a bridge.

Dennis Hoye and James O'Donnell, were charged with being disorderly—case continued to to-day.

THE BLUE ISLAND MURDER.—The Chicago papers of yesterday are full of details about the desperate murder near Blue Island, the arrest of the murderer in this city, and the extraordinary amount of credit due to the Chicago officers, for their share in this arrest. Of course, as little credit as possible is awarded to our Milwaukee officers, although they, in fact, are entitled to the largest share. The Tribune of yesterday, for instance, closes its account thus:

"It is proper that the public should understand to Capt. Bradley and his detectives is due all the credit for the arrest of the perpetrator of one of the most cold-blooded murders ever committed in this country.

Since the above was written we learn that Capt. Bradley has succeeded in finding the horses and wagon of the murdered man, at a farmer's barn where Stonge had deposited them, saying he would return for them shortly."

All humbug! Capt. BRADLEY is entitled to the same degree of credit as Capt. YATES, and no more. The murderer drove the "horses and wagon" to this city, and they were sent back to Chicago by the Lake Shore R. R. yesterday, by our Chief of Police BECK, instead of being found by Capt. BRADLEY "at a farmer's barn." The officer despatched by Capt. YATES, of the regular police, in pursuit of the murderer, arrived here yesterday within an hour, or so, after the arrest was made and took the prisoner back with him to to Chicago the same afternoon. Capt. BRADLEY'S "detective" did not arrive here until 24 hours after the arrest and some 18 hours after the murderer was safe back at Chicago. These are the simple facts. Let credit be given accordingly.

SOUTH PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, FIFTH WARD.—To many who have long desired its prosperity, it will be interesting to learn that this church, though yet comparatively feeble in numbers as well as in wealth, is going forward, and will, it is confidently expected, soon rank among our most flourishing churches. Their pastor, Rev. Samuel Day, late of Bellows Falls, Vt., is now laboring among the people of this part of our city with a good deal of energy, and with every prospect of success.

We are informed that it is contemplated by members of the Church and Society to make a Pastoral visit, at the residence of their Pastor, on the first evening of the New Year. This social interview will, doubtless, be one in which stronger ties of affection between Pastor and people will be formed, as well as new resolutions to increased effort in doing good.

May he also receive on that occasion many of those substantial expressions of sympathy, so necessary to his influence, as well as the comfort of his family. Let there be, also, a liberal response from the more prosperous sister-churches in other parts of our city. All are invited to be present.

DEATH OF E. C. SACKETT.—We were pained yesterday to hear of the death, by consumption of Mr. E. C. SACKETT, who was for a time foreman in the news department of our office. He went hence to Janesville and engaged in the publication of the Daily Free Press, but was obliged to relinquish the business on account of ill health.—He went to Kansas, where he has been for about a year, and returned to his father's house in Watertown, to die. He was a young man of fine abilities, noble impulses, and excellent principles, and troops of friends will mourn his death.

THE BALL LAST NIGHT.—The Annual Ball of Rough and Ready Engine Co., at Young's Hall was decidedly a pleasant affair. There was a attendance, and all were as merry as they well could be. The Hall was a little dusty, but the dance went off right gayly notwithstanding. The music by Hess' Band was, as usual, "tip-top," and the supper prepared by Messrs. Husched & Schendt, illicited drowning approbation.

THE FAIRY OPERA.—Prof. Rollins has arrived to prepare for the performance of another of the Operettas, presented with such success last fall. He desires that the young ladies who desire to take part shall meet him at Albany Hall, at 4 P. M. to-day and to-morrow.

☞ Thanks to Messrs. F. & S. A. Raymond, 16 Wisconsin street, for a can of delicious oysters.—They are prime and no mistake. Try them.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT.—The executive committee of the Relief Association are happy to acknowledge the receipt of a valuable lot of second hand clothing from Wm. E. Cramer, and also a very liberal donation of new and second hand from the police station.

☞ This morning the great Sale of Furniture comes of at the City Land office, on Michigan St. Ladies will please attend.

MINNESOTA SENATORS.—By the Minnesotian of the 17th instant, received last night, we learn that the Democratic members of the Legislature in caucus had nominated H. M. Rice and General Shields, as their candidates for U. S. Senators. Rice was nominated on the first ballot, receiving 56 out of 81 votes cast. Shields was nominated on the fourth ballot by 33 votes to 28 for Frank Steele, Governor Gorman withdrawing. No day has yet been fixed for the election, though the Democrats are trying to force it on immediately.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 22.

Despatches from Bonaville, this morning, say that Maj. Russell, Capt. Van Vliet, and Geo. N. Sanders, passed down the river last evening en route for Washington. They left Leavenworth on the 19th. Stanton was still acting as Governor apparently with the approbation of Gen. Denver. Gen. Harney had despatched two companies of cavalry upon Stanton's requisition, to suppress a rebellion at Fort Scott, where several lives had been sacrificed. Harney had also posted troops at Doniphan, Atchison, Kickapoo, Leavenworth, Lawrence, and Lecompton.

It is thought the legitimate vote will be very small, but there are many Missourians going into the Territory to vote, which, taken in connection with Stanton's removal, may cause bloodshed at the polls. An arrival from the Plains reports that two companies of the 5th infantry had met with reverses, and that the depot at Fort Laramie is threatened by the Mormons. A letter to the Democrat, dated Leavenworth, 16th, says that General Lane was shot at, at Lecompton, by a government official, name not given, on the evening of the 15th. The affair grew out of a political discussion. Much excitement prevailed.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.

The Southern gentlemen have an important movement on foot, which promises an early settlement of the Kansas agitation. It is intended, when the Lecompton Constitution comes on, to take it up by the friends of the Administration as a party measure, as a formal assertion of the fundamental principle of popular sovereignty—the Constitution will be passed with a proviso that it shall be presented to the people of Kansas for final acceptance and ratification, and an enabling act will be incorporated in the new bill as an alternative in case the Lecompton Constitution is rejected by the people of Kansas.

Judge Hale, of Iowa, who was in the last Congress, has been appointed Chief Justice for the Territory of Nebraska. Jas. M. Buchanan, of Baltimore, will be appointed minister to St. Petersburgh.

It is rumored that the Tennessee delegation in Congress, have unanimously resolved to reject the Lecompton Constitution.

MILWAUKEE:

WEDNESDAY MORNING, DEC'R 23.

Gov. Walker's Letter of Resignation.

As one of the chapters in the history of Kansas business, the late letter of Gov. Walker to the President, conveying his resignation as the Executive of the Territory, is worthy of notice. We would gladly publish it, did our space allow, but as it covers four columns in the N. Y. Times, we are compelled to content ourselves with a notice of its principal features.

Gov. Walker states that when he accepted the Governorship he did so with the express understanding that he "should advocate the submission of the Constitution to a vote of the people for their ratification or rejection," and that these views were shared and heartily endorsed by every member of the Cabinet, and were embodied in the instructions given him by the President. He says that he went to Kansas, and in good faith made pledges to the people in accordance with the above understanding, and that nothing but his promises, authorized by the President, that the Lecompton Constitution should be submitted to the people, prevented the assumption of authority under the Topeka Constitution, accompanied, as it must have been, by civil war; nor does he entertain a doubt that the failure to keep this promise and the attempt to force the Lecompton Constitution on the people will be attended by a like result.

He says that he committed himself fully to the people in his Inaugural and Proclamation on the subject of allowing the people a fair vote on the Constitution, and that he cannot abandon that position "without personal dishonor and the abandonment of fundamental principles, and it is therefore impossible."

The Governor then proceeds with an argument on the doctrine of popular sovereignty, in which he convicts the President of inconsistency and abandonment of former positions, while he furnishes numerous details of the outrages committed by the pro-slavery mangers in Kansas, and claims for himself that his personal exertions and his use of the troops averted civil war in the Territory. He thinks it is "more respectful to the President, on his part, to resign the office of Governor, and give him an opportunity of filling it, as is his right under the Constitution, with one who concurs with him in his present opinions, rather than go to Kansas and force him to remove him by disobedience to his instructions; and he adds:—"My only alternative then, is that of a respectful resignation, in the hope that Kansas and our beloved country may be shielded from that civil war with which I fear both are threatened by any attempt to force the so-called Lecompton Constitution upon the people of Kansas."

Gov. Walker has placed himself manifestly in the right before the country in this communication, and the conduct of the President and his backers is thrown into deeper shade, as compared with that of his Executive and Secretary in Kansas. We take pleasure in saying something favorable of this defunct Executive, the fourth of the Kansas martyrs, for we have often enough had occasion to blame him. We are among the many who never had any confidence in him as a public man, regarding him as a plausible, hypocritical, time-serving demagogue. His utter unscrupulousness as to the means of carrying out his purposes, came under review in this State more especially through his connection with the Rock Valley Railroad business, and his flooding of the English and American capitalists by his plausible pamphlet is in the remembrance of all. When he was sent to Kansas, we expected to find him a supple tool of the Slave Power, and his contemptuous allusions to the Free State men—his neglect to make an apportionment of the Territory—his investment of Lawrence with U. S. troops—and his justification of the soldiers voting at Kickapoo—all went to confirm this impression. But on this single question of allowing the people a fair vote upon the Constitution, he has preserved his consistency, and we desire to give him for it all the credit that he deserves. He is right in this matter, and his appeal to the country, for such his published letter of resignation is in effect, places him in a position contrasting very favorably with that of President Buchanan.

The Sectional Party.

The National Democracy are in the ascendant, in both Houses of Congress, though in each the minority is strong in numbers, in character and in talent. In making up the Committees, it has always been customary to give the minority a fair representation on them. But the Pro-Slavery leaders who control the Democracy have this year departed from the time-honored usage, and packed the Committees in the most unfair and scandalous manner. The South takes the lion's share, leaving to the North only a few bare bones to pick. Thus of the fourteen leading Committees in the House, nine have Southern Chairmen, while of the 22 Committees of the Senate, sixteen have Southern Chairmen! Of course, all the Chairmen, in both Houses, are Democrats, contrary, alike, to usage and courtesy.

On Finance (the leading Committee) the Democracy take five and give the Republicans two. On Commerce, they appropriate all except one. On the Judiciary they take five, graciously leaving the other two to the Republicans. On Foreign Relations they are extraordinarily liberal.—They assume four, give the Republicans two, and let Mr. Crittenden have a place on it. On Military Affairs, and on Naval Affairs, they in each case take five and give the Opposition two. The same is true of the Post Office Committee, and also that on Public Lands. On Territories they assign Mr. Douglas to his old place as Chairman but they put on three Slaveholders and one Dough-Face to keep him straight, and leave room for Mr. Sumner, who is too ill to work, and for Mr. Wade, who is able to work always, and willing to fight when necessary. On the Library Committee they have placed nobody but Slaveholders, whose duty it will be to see to it that no incendiary publication finds its way into the great literary repository of the nation. Thus it is of the whole twenty-two Committees. Of course, all the chairmen are Democrats, and six-teen of them are Slaveholders. The committee on Commerce is worthy of special note. Assuming to themselves six of its members, and four of these being Slaveholders, the Democracy refuse a single representative to the great Lakes, whose commerce is reckoned by hundreds of millions, while they give a member each to Georgia and South Carolina, both of which scarcely show their annual hundreds of thousands.

ANOTHER JUDICIAL CIRCUIT CALLED FOR.—The Superior Chronicle calls for the organization of another Circuit, to embrace Douglas, La Pointe, and Burnett counties. We trust that no such measure will prevail in the Legislature. Our State is overstocked with Judges now. We have no less than ten circuits, to do the business of our State, and we remember the time when eight judges managed to get along with the business of New York, the population of that State being then three times the present population of this State. The salaries have been raised to a reasonable sum, and there are men of abundant ability, who can, and will do the work, within the present limitation of circuits; and by a just arrangement of the counties, we doubt not that eight judges would get along with the business satisfactorily.

"The News" Sustained.

The brief but explicit communication which we print this morning, signed "Jefferson," is conclusive as to the sentiments of the people of the disfranchised towns respecting the strange action of the State Canvassers in their case. Another note, from a gentleman in the town of Emmet, discussing the same subject, has been received, but on account of the violence of its language we decline to insert it.

Our correspondent says that the censures of "The News" upon this barbarous business, gives universal satisfaction among those directly interested—while the attempted defence of it, by the Sentinel, gives as general displeasure.

* * * * * * *

It is hoped, certainly, that the transaction will be remembered—that it will hereafter as it should, operate against the Republican party.—News of yesterday.

As the "Republican party" have had nothing whatever to do with the "barbarous business"—the "State Canvassers," all Democrats, being the sole parties to the transaction—we don't quite see how it is to "operate" against our side. We are entirely content, however, that the News should try it on. The excitable "gentleman from Emmet," probably proposed to lynch the State Board for obeying the law, rather than the party. The News "sympathizes" with him, but don't think it prudent to publish his truculent counsel. The anonymous "gentleman from Shields," who certifies that the News is all right, and the Sentinel, the State Canvassers, the Revised Statutes, and the Supreme Court, all wrong, on this question, would be esteemed better authority if he would furnish the public with his name—supposing that he is not ashamed of it.

We admire the prodigious fuss which the News is making about this matter. True, the votes of the "disputed towns" all appeared in the Canvass; nobody there was "disfranchised;" the result was not affected in the slightest degree by the course pursued by the Canvassers; and none but "Democrats" participated in the transaction—but Secretary Jones is to be hushed over the shoulders of the Sentinel for disobeying the mandates of the Barstow organs, and discrediting the acts of the Barstow Canvassers, two years ago; and the attention of the faithful is to be diverted, if possible, from the threatening Kansas issue, which now engrosses all thoughts at Washington. Hence the "expressive silence" of the liveried News about Kansas, and its affected indignation and persistent clamor about "the disfranchised towns."

OUR GREAT ISLAND SEAS.—The details of the trip of the schooner Seaman, which has been heard from as late as having arrived safely at Ontonagon, furnish an interesting illustration of a long and perilous voyage in fresh water.

The "Seaman" left Port Huron October 27th, bound for Ontonagon, with supplies for the mines. She made her way to Lake Superior with good weather, but in the severe storm which prevailed on the 5th and 6th of December, and in which the propeller City of Superior was wrecked, she went into Grand Island Harbor for shelter. Coming out, she made three attempts in the next two weeks to get to Ontonagon.—Once she tried to get into Keweenaw Bay, but failed, and next day got near Copper Harbor, but was driven back, and came near going ashore at Manitou Island, and finally ran back to Grand Harbor. On the fourth trial she got into Ontonagon, after a voyage of four and a half weeks. The "Mirror" says:

The Seaman brought some 1200 barrels of freight—chiefly flour, corn-meal, a few hundred bushels of oats, and two or three hundred barrels of liquors.

Several families of our village were, by her safe arrival, relieved from great distress, arising from apprehension that the vessel and crew had been lost.

☞ A beautiful apparatus is on exhibition in the great hall of the patent office. It is the invention of Samuel Gardiner, jr., of New York, and is called the "Galvano-electric Gas-lighter." By means of it, all the gas jets of a whole city may be lighted, enlarged, contracted and extinguished at will, and in an instant, by a single person, in any desired position. The apparatus is also applicable to other and more striking uses—to the explosion of ordnance to any extent and at any distance, to the blowing up of ships by the agency of submerged destructives, &c.—Exchange.

We object to the issue of that patent. Full two years ago, we think, our fellow-citizen, Chas. Grotkie, suggested the same thing, and pointed out the process. As he is in constant correspondence with the Departments of this and all other Governments, it is possible that some one has seen his letter, and is robbing him of his laurels. Now, if Grotkie, or somebody else, will invent a metre which will not measure more gas consumed when burners are not lighted than when they are blazing for hours, he will entitle himself to everlasting gratitude.

HON. WALKER D. MCLEOD.—The Plover Herald thus disposes of the story, industriously circulated by some of the sham Democracy, that Mr. McLeod and his friends had not cordially supported the Republican ticket at the late election:

We are informed by gentlemen who were at Waucau on the day of election, that the Republican ticket was well sustained by Mr. McLeod and other leading Republicans—they not only voted but worked. The result at this locality shows the fact, there were nearly four hundred votes polled, and the Democracy had but one majority for Governor. We like to see "honor given to whom honor is due." We have this to say, but in no unkind spirit, that if all the leading Republicans in other parts of the State had gone to the polls and done their duty as Mr. McLeod did, the whole Republican ticket would have been elected; and in conclusion we must be permitted to remark that Democrats have looked to the wrong place for treason—the Highland Regiment was never known to falter.

POWERS' STATUE OF WEBSTER.—The ship Oxford from Liverpool, having on board Powers' statue of Daniel Webster, to be erected in Boston, is now in the 105th day of her passage. She has not been heard from since her departure, and fears are entertained that she may have been lost, together with her precious freight. The status [says the Advertiser] was fully insured, and the model still exists in the artist's studio, so that it could be replaced after a delay of a year or two, if necessary. The loss of the first statue would nevertheless be an unfortunate circumstance, and we cannot help hoping that the Oxford will yet make her appearance either at Boston or some other port ☞ Dr. Parker, late United States Commissioner to China, has arrived in the steamer Baltic.—He has been in China more than twenty years during more than half of which period he has been connected with the United States embassy as secretary and interpreter, acting commissioner and minister, in all of which positions he has been eminently useful.

OSTONAGON SUPPLIES.—In our issue of Nov. 21st, we publish a table of receipts of freight by our Commission Merchants up to that date, since which we learn that some fifty tons were received by different parties which did not go through the receiver's hands. The Mineral Rock has also landed some 22 tons of freight, and the schooner Seaman 114 tons since the table was published; hence the entire receipts of imports for the past season amount to three thousand eight hundred and seventy-five tons.

Of this amount there were of

Flour,	4,320	barrels
Oats, corn and meal	8,470	"
Mess Beef	1,328	"
Mess Pork	1,000	"

—Lake Superior Miner.

FROZEN.—We understand that our friend Dennis Crowley, the faithful keeper of the Menasha Light House, while passing in his boat from the island on which the House is situated, during the cold snap in November, had his hands so badly frozen as to be in danger of loosing some of his fingers. Before he was aware of it his hands stiffened upon the oars and he lost power to pull his boat ashore and but for timely aid would have lost his life.—Neenah Conservator.

A $40,000 Hint to Mr. Buchanan.

From the New Orleans Picayune.

In the New York Hotel, prior to the Pa. October election, there assembled many wealthy gentlemen, then if not now, Buchanan men, who raised $40,000 to stem the Fremont tide in Pa., then the tocsin and turning point of the whole Presidential Election. The money did the work, and in October the Buchanan ticket was carried, —which sign first started Northern Buchananism, and secured the subsequent November vote.

All these $40,000 gentlemen, every one now, it is believed, are grieved and pained by Mr. Buchanan's interference in our New York local Election, and the contemplated punishment of Mr. McKeon, because he refused to support Mr. Wood for Mayor, "solely on account of his bad personal character"—and which personal character is such, that "the libelled" man dare not take it into a Court of Justice, before a jury of his countrymen. Most of these $40,000 gentlemen have personally sent their remonstrances to Washington against the removal.

The Legislature of this State, and by recommendation of Mayor Wood, isolated the New York city Election from the Federal and State Elections, purposely to exempt, free and divest it from Federal and State politics. Mayor Wood is on record to this effect. The city is a corporation, a chartered body, like a railroad, bank, or manufactured company, and the Legislature, seconding the call of Mayor Wood and others, attempted to give this city corporation the exemption from partisan politics which other corporations have. What should we think of Mr Buchanan's walking into a railroad office, and punishing Mr. McKeon, as a stockholder of that company, for not choosing a President of the company upon the ground of his Federal party politics, when the Federal-selected President was unfit, in personal character, to be trusted with its financial administration? What can we think of him when he enters our city corporation and does exactly the same thing?

Mr. Buchanan is here in New York city, as well as in Kansas, on a wrong tack. He has forgotten all about the rights of families to have their own servants, of corporations to have their own agents, of States or Territories to make their own laws and their own administrations,—and he seems to have imbibed the very intoxicating idea that it is his business to govern the corporation of New York as well as the Territory of Kansas. The quicker he returns to his old sobriety upon this subject the better.—N. Y. Express.

THE SENATE COMMITTEES.—The outrage in the matter of arranging the U. S. Senate Committees, did not pass unrebuked. The Washington correspondent of the Detroit Tribune writes as follows:

The Senate Committees were confirmed today, by a vote of the body, after having been formed in caucus. All the Northern Democrats who voted were base enough to support a list for the distribution of the powers of the Senate which virtually disfranchises and tramples upon the free states. Among them were Stewart, Douglas and Pugh.

Mr. Chandler eloquently protested against the disgraceful act. He analyzed the test with great freedom and clearness, and his words which carried conviction to every listener, denounced it retribution for the wrong, when the power of the great and true North-West should attain its due representation in this body. His manner was determined and his words were as prophetic as bold. I was rejoiced to hear him take the manly ground of retaliation for the injuries and insults which slavery is now, as it has been, inflicting upon the North. I am sick of the pulling morality, which by preaching submission to the insolence and arrogance of the South, destroys all independence of character in politicians of the North.

Mr. Chandler announced the true doctrine, and produced a very marked sensation in the Senate. He was at once set down as a man of the sort which the South fears and hates, because it cannot use them.

Mr. Doolittle of Wisconsin, also throttled the tiger in his lair. He protested against the unfairness and sectionalism of the list, and showed that the great North-West was denied its due share of representation. Mr. Doolittle showed himself one of the best debaters in the Senate.

Gwin and Bayard of Delaware, had the impudence to urge that it was necessary to give the South all the power, in order to keep down the Republican party! because, if that party should succeed, the South would dissolve the Union!!—This was an admission that the South nurtures a nest of infamous traitors ready to break up the Union, as soon as their party passes into a minority. Let them make the attempt if they dare. All the hemp they produce will not suffice for the hanging which will be their reward.

No theme is more prolific of remark than—the weather. We state for the enlightenment of our readers abroad, that we are having the most remarkable "spell" of it hereabouts, ever experienced by that venerable individual usually referred to in this connection, [except the "oldest inhabitant." It is as warm as spring time. Only in ravines and shaded slopes are any vestiges of snow. The ground is spongy, and indeed we expect to wake up some of these mornings to see the grass peeping out. The channel in the river is clear of ice, and steamboats are running. By the St. Louis papers we see that boats are advertised for points in Iowa. The Dubuque ferry boat, Peoria, steamed up to this point on Wednesday last, and commenced making regular trips to and from McGregor and this point. After all, the muskrats are not such an improvident race as we formerly believed them to be, in building thin houses. We write this Wednesday, and leave room to note any other "spell of weather" that may come along before Friday night.

And it has come round. Thursday night it grew a little colder—just cold enough, in fact, to snow—and at present writing, (Friday forenoon) there is a thin covering of snow on the prairie, with a prospect of "more of the same sort."

Senate Library Committee.

On the Library—Messrs. PEARCE, BAYARD, HUNTER.

Governments are subverted, sometimes by bold usurpations,—at others they are undermined by insidious approaches. Slavery works, unceasingly, by both means. Florida was purchased, and with but a few hundred citizens was forthwith admitted as a Slave State. Texas was conquered, and immediately ushered into the Union as a Slave State. The power of the Government, Civil and Military, has been exerted, for four years, to force Slavery into Kansas.

Meanwhile Slavery works stealthily, to entrench and fortify itself at the Federal Capitol. In the formation of the Library Committee, in the Senate, not only Republican but Northern Senators are excluded! Slavery takes possession of the LITERATURE of the Country! There must be no exceptionable Books in the National Library!

No Senator North of Mason & Dixon's Line is on the Library Committee. New England, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, and the whole West, are excluded from any control or voice in the Nation's Library! Of the thirty-two Senators representing Free States, not one of them, whether Republican or Democrat, is entrusted with the duty of selecting Books for the People's Library!—Albany Eve. Journal.

ELECTRIC OIL—PROOF.—We know the fact that in 1854 Prof. DeGrath sold the Electric Oil in Chestnut street, opposite the State House, in this city. He was the first manufacturer. No one was connected with him at this time. He made many cures with it, and carried on the business for several months. His first place of business in this city was at No. 18 South High street. He afterwards removed to 69 South Eighth street. In all this time no other person whatever was mentioned in connection with the Electric Oil.

WORTH KNOWING.—Prof. Wood, whose advertisement will be found in another column, has discovered a remedy for the gray hair, which is at once practicable and cheap. It requires no dying, no wig, or extraordinary trouble. There can be no doubt whatever of its efficacy. We have seen testimonials almost without number, and from men of great intelligence, high standing and moral worth.

Those who have been bald for years are now wearing their own hair, and appear ten years younger than they did six months ago. As in most cases grey hairs and bald heads are both premature and unnatural, it is a duty to remedy them by the natural and undoubted means which Prof. Wood has invented, and now kindly offers to the afflicted. Read his advertisement, try his wonderful remedy, and give the Prof. a new testimonial.

Division of Texas—A New Slave State.

From the New Orleans Picayune.

The subdivision of Texas into two or more States is revived in the public journals of that State. No State in the Union has increased in population and wealth during the last few years more than Texas. Her estimated population at this time amounts to more than half a million, and when the next census is taken it will be found sufficient to entitle the State to six or seven Representatives to Congress.

Several reasons are given for a division. The great size of the State; the great dissimilarity of its parts, and the difficulty of constant communication between all parts, and one centre of Government, are among the chief of them. The general political reason is the importance of increasing the strength of the South in the United States Senate, by the addition of more Senators, to check the increasing predominance of the non slaveholding States, from the growth of Free-soil States in the Northwest.

The subdivision of Texas into not more than four States is provided for by the articles of annexation.

One of the principal objections is that, perhaps, one of the new States may be a Free State, by reason of the predominance in one portion of the State of settlers from Europe, who do not employ slave labor. That danger is overrated. It is proposed to avoid all apprehension on that subject by making a new State out of the First Congressional District as now constituted, which will be sure to adopt a slave Constitution, and in the remainder of the State—the original Texas—the preponderance is clear, and the constitutional provisions sufficiently decided.

The "wise who know" profess to explain the mysterious conduct of certain persons in authority in regard to the "Walker expedition," by prognosticating the speedy annihilation of that distinguished Central American Romulus. It seems that he is not to be considered a Romulus at all, but rather a Remus, whose "vaulting ambition has overleaped itself."

The secret "Junta" to whom the arrangement of the Nicaragua business was confined, and of which Mr. Soule was a leading member, being convinced, it is said, that Walker's "capacity" as a military leader was more than questionable, made up their minds the warlike interests of the new adventure must be confided, not to him, but to General Henningsen. This arrangement was by no means palatable to the "President of Nicaragua," who has a civilian's passion for tactics and manœuvres. He, therefore, pretended to acquiesce in the plan, but, when the Fashion was ready for sea, astutely slipped on board and set off, to the surprise of nobody more than of the "Junto" aforesaid, and to the chagrin of nobody more than of General Henningsen. Of course, he expects that he will be sustained in the step to which he has now committed the fortunes of the "regenerating club," but the attitude of President Buchanan, and the delayed departure of General Henningsen, with the presence of that gentleman in Washington, while they countenance the shape in which the story of the plot reaches us, afford reasonable ground for doubting whether the rapidly Tennessean has not really transgressed the fatal limits of his destiny. The quarrel is a "very pretty one as it stands," and its possible issues are of a gravity which entitles it to the watchful attention of the public.—N. Y. Times.

Utah Matters.

Captain Van Vleit, U. S. A, arrived in this city, Saturday morning, at 4 o'clock, breakfasted and was off again for the West at 8 o'clock, A. M., on the Pacific cars. He was just from Washington, and the presumption is that he did not stop a moment on the route. Such rapid movements have, it may be, reference to the operations of the army marching against Utah, although it is possible that he may be the bearer of instructions to General Denver, the Secretary, or to General Harney, in command of the United States troops in Kansas Territory.

There seems to be a very general concurrence in the propriety of the recommendation of the President, that an additional military force should be raised and organized, with a view to the suppression of the rebellion in Utah Territory. We see no opposition from any quarter, and we doubt whether any will be made, to the formation of such an army as will enforce respect for the laws and civil authorities in Utah Territory, and in a little while we shall see evidence of preparation for the march. The sooner these preparations are begun the better it will be for the success of the expedition, and it may be that the position of Colonel Johnson's army in the passes leading to Great Salt Lake City will imperatively demand an early march of troops for its relief.—He has said that he will not fall back from the position he now occupies, but he may be prevented from going on, and succor from this quarter will be absolutely necessary. It should not be concealed from the people that his command is in a position of great danger, liable to constant attacks from the enemy, and still more exposed to suffering from the snows and cold weather, and, if the Mormons should be successful in cutting off the supplies, to starvation.

We presume that movements will at once be made to concentrate an army of at least 5,000 men at Fort Leavenworth, with a view to an early Spring campaign. If so, there will be stirring times in this State, and along our frontier, from which a great portion of the supplies must come.

ANOTHER HORSE THIEF HANGED!—We learn from the Anamosa Eureka that Hiram Roberts, the notorious counterfeiter and horse thief, who was arrested at Red Oak Grove, in Cedar County, on Friday last, by the "Regulators," was taken into Jones County, near Walnut Fork, and after having been tried and pronounced guilty, on Saturday still hanging, having been left by the hangers to be interred by others. Roberts, we believe, is the eleventh victim to lynch law in the central counties of Iowa during the present year. The strange infatuation that has prompted the taking of life in this manner for an offence which the law does not punish with death will ever be an inexplicable disgrace to the fair fame of this State.—Muscatine (Iowa) News.

Christmas Times.

The following lines were taken from an English paper more than thirty years ago:

In times before hook my Christmas fare
Was turkey and a chine,
And pudding ran to of lumps most rare,
And plenty of good wine.

When times grew worse, I still could dine
On beef or roasted pig,
A glass of grog instead of wine,
And dance the merry jig.

Though poorer grown, my Christmas cheer
Was beef and pudding plain,
A pot of beer, instead of grog,
Nor did I then complain.

But now, my cattle is turned to grief,
For Christmas day is near,
No turkey, pudding, beef, or pig,
No wine, no grog, no beer!

THEIR HUSBAND.—The following incident is stated to have occurred at Gloucester during the past week. As a working man was leaving home after breakfast to resume his duties, his wife said, in the most plaintive and affectionate accents, 'I WISH will you have for dinner to-day, my dear?' "A bosom stick boiled, if you like," was the peevish rejoinder, accompanied with a slam of the door. The husband returned home to dinner in a better humor. A clean cloth was laid on the table, and a few covers and dishes, neatly arranged, graced his table. "I wish my dear," said the busy housewife, "you would stroll off to the water," at the same time pointing to a large sauce-pan. The husband obeyed, took the pot to the pump stone, and strained of the water. Curiosity prompted him to take off the lid to see "what was for dinner," when he beheld a besom-stick, chopped into suitable pieces. The husband had commanded, and the dutiful wife had obeyed—it was all she had cooked.—Cheltenham Examiner.

A FAIR PUNSTER.—At an invitation party a gentleman pressed a branch of thyme to a young lady (his sweetheart) in the presence of her mother and all the guests, which she refused, and said "It is not time' I want, but "opportunity."

PADDY AND THE POST.—"Och, sure this must be the Dead Letter Office," said an Irishman, addressing one of the posts recently erected for the reception of letters, "for divil a livin' sowl is there in it to tell me the postage of a letter."

HARD TIMES.—Lately in Glasgow, a worthy old woman was laid upon her bed, sick and faint. She had been long troubled with predilections for strong waters, and many plans and schemes did she try to obtain a small drop of these comforts. As a last and desperate resource, she sent her wee lassie to the public house with her Bible, and sundry explanations. The lassie came back as she went. 'Heeh sir,' exclaimed the worthy old woman, 'it's fearful time, when they neither take my word nor the word o' God for twa gills o' whisky.'

GET A HOME.—Get a home, rich or poor, get a home, and learn to love that home, and make it happy to your wife and children by your beaming presence; love simple pleasures, flowers of God's own planting, and music of his own; the bird, wind and waterfall. So shall you help to stem the tide of desolation, poverty and despair, that comes upon so many through scorn of little things. O, the charm of a little home; comforts dwell there that shun the gilded halls of society. Live humbly in your little house, and look to God for a grander one.

☞ Affectation is the art of being a fool according to rule. Some people are never themselves until they succeed in being somebody else; and it is a melancholy fact that those who effect the transmigration, rarely become anybody at all.

☞ Secrecy has been well termed the soul of all great designs; perhaps more has been effected by concealing our own intentions, than by discovering those of our enemy. Great men succeed in both.

PARIS THEATRICALS.—In Paris they hire a lady to faint in the boxes at a critical passage in a new tragedy!

A BANKRUPT'S OPINION.—A bankrupt on being consoled with for his embarrassment, replied—'Oh, I am not all embarrassed; it is my creditors that are embarrassed.'

CAUSE AND EFFECT.—It is a very common thing to abuse lawyers. Reckless lawyers, however, should always be excepted. It would be wrong to speak ill of a man "without a cause."

MANUFACTURE OF SARDINES.—Large quantities of sprats are weekly sent to London from the east coast of Scotland to be manufactured into sardines. Young herring are also used for this purpose.

☞ Nobody can stand in awe of himself too much.

☞ The world makes us talkers, but solitude makes us thinkers.

☞ Next to my friends, I love my enemies, for from them I first hear my faults.

☞ A fop is like a cinnamon tree—the bark is worth more than the body.

☞ We have seen women not only too weak to beat food, but even to weak too bear contradiction.

Because he is going to a light.

☞ An Irishman tells of a fight in which there was but one whole nose left in the crowd, "and that belonged to the tay-kettle."

☞ It is folly to try to make pork out of pig-iron, or that you can become a shoemaker by just drinking sherry cobbler.

☞ Never confide in a young man; new pails leak. Never tell your secret to the aged; old doors seldom shut closely.

☞ An Irish gentleman lately fought a duel with his intimate friend, because he jocosely asserted that he was born without a shirt to his back.

CALEB WALL'S ADV'TS

CITY AUCTION ROOM.

City Auction Room.

GREAT and grand sale of three thousand dollars worth of superior Furniture. The sale to take place at the City Land Office, on Michigan street, opposite the New Mill House. The reason why I have the sale at the City and Office is because the room is large, pleasant and comfortable, so that Ladies can attend; and particularly with the Ladies to call and examine the Furniture, which will all be arranged on Tuesday, Dec. 22d, the day before sale. The sale will take place Wednesday, Dec. 23d, at 10 o'clock. The Furniture consists, in part, as follows:

1 extra superior Rosewood Parlor Suit complete, in Medallion coverings, worth in New York $500; 3 superior suits of Imitation Rosewood Chamber Furniture, worth from $60 to $100; 3 Grecian Sofas, in coverings; new style Black Walnut Bureaus; 6 new style Cherry Bureaus, 6 do Dressing Bureaus, 6 Enclosed Wash Stands, 6 Spring Beds, 12 assorted Tables Stands, 6 Settees, 6 Rocking Chairs, Corner Stands, Book Racks, variety of Chairs, Rocking Chairs, 6 extra style Mahogany Bureaus, 3 do do Sofas, 6 do Tetera-Tetes, 2 sets Mahogany Chairs, 2 do Rockers, 2 do Easy Chairs, 4 do Centre Tables, 3 do Card Tables, 1 do Work Table, &c., &c.

Together with sundry other articles all of which can be seen the day before the sale. The said Goods are all from New York, and the party comes them has consigned me to furnish a house. This winter, and therefore great bargains may be expected. Ladies will please attend the auction, and on and see the Furniture the day before the sale. dec19 CALEB WALL.

City Auction Room.

I HAVE JUST BOUGHT through our paper-hist work, and have had a large stock of Dry Goods from N. York, from South Avenue, No. 329, corner of Twenty first st. The goods are all from New York, and no other place; and as we all want every day to our families. The goods are now all opened in the store, No. 3 Public Square, where they will remain for thirty or sixty days. It is no intention of mine whatever to open a retail store, although I have as much right to do so as many others who use to do so. Be positive I have heard that several of our merchants complain that I am injuring their trade by selling goods so low. I would kindly say to those merchants that the goods are all bought for cash, and I buy as well as most merchants, and when I sell at prices, I will give them credit, provided they can give me good paper, endorsed by good parties monthly or quarterly, on the entire stock can, which amounts to twenty Thousand Dollars. The following terms: One-fourth cash in hand on delivery—balance in one, two or three years, with seven per cent. interest, secured by a mortgage on property in our city. But I will say to those to send me a good endorsed note, and I will say to all of our citizens to go and get great bargains. There is every kind of goods you want at thirty per cent less than ever sold in this city before. C. Ayres has the entire charge of the said goods. I attend to all auction business at the old corner, and will give it that strict attention I always have done. Any one having stocks of goods to sell, I am ready at all times to purchase the same. Call on me.

dec5 CALEB WALL, City Auctioneer.

City Auction Room.

I WANT to purchase twenty thousand to thirty thousand dollars worth of city Goods in the following ways: Our quarter cash, balance in good city property; or I will pay cash if I can agree on price; or I will exchange good Bonds and Mortgages or Rail road Stocks, or School lands. Any one who is tired of trading, and wishes to get out of business, come to me and I will buy you out. My object is to do good to all, and keep myself at the same time. Or, if any one wants to sell his stock of Goods at auction, I will advance him more cash than is usually given in the south on said Goods. I will advance on all kinds of Goods, Furniture, &c., &c., but said Goods will be sold in the opposite the advance, or the parties can, if they wish, advance by paying the Commission. All I want is to make money out of money, and keep the balance rolling. I also want it understood that I am ready to do all auction business entrusted to my care. Oh, I would also say, that the great stock of Goods which has been selling on the west side of the river, at half price, that I have concluded to keep the store open for thirty days long r. The crowd is so great and Goods so cheap that I think it may pay to give all a chance to get great bargains. Remember it is in the store room formerly occupied by J. L. Pierce, on west side of the river. dec26 CALEB WALL.

RAILROAD!

NEW, SHORT LINE, DIRECT,

RAILROAD ROUTE TO THE EAST!

GREAT TRUNK LINE!

LOOK AT ANY RAILROAD MAP to discover the peculiar advantages of this new and most direct Railroad Route.

No snowy and sleepless nights, to cold and cheerless cars, stuck fast in SNOW DRIFTS, by this route.

The cars of this road are new, and of the most approved construction, and comfortably heated.

This route leaves Cincinnati Eastward from the depot of the Little Miami Railroad, and passes through the Southern portion of Ohio. Between Cincinnati and Baltimore the distance is 565 miles, which does not vary one mile or more from

AN AIR LINE.

THE RATES OF FARE ON THIS LINE HAVE BEEN REDUCED!

CINCINNATI TO BALTIMORE	$14,50
CINCINNATI TO WASHINGTON	14,50
CINCINNATI TO PHILADELPHIA	17,00
CINCINNATI TO NEW YORK	20,65

In consequence of the above reduction, some Roads refuse to sell our Tickets. Passengers from the East can

Purchase Tickets to Parkersburg, Only,

—AND—

From the West to Cincinnati, only,

And they will, in all cases,

Save $1,50 on each Ticket, by so doing.

New Winter Arrangement Commences on MONDAY, Nov. 23, 1857.

Three Daily Trains leave Depot of Little Miami Railroad, Front Street, Cincinnati, as follows:

First Train—6.35 A. M., Baltimore, Washington and Cincinnati Express, stopping only at the prominent stations on the line between Cincinnati, Parkersburg and Washington. By this train passengers reach the Ohio River at 5 P. M. Have one hour for dinner on the superb steamer John Gault, arriving in Parkersburg in time to be transported across the Ohio to Parkersburg, Va. Leave there at 4.30 P. M., and continue on Express Train, arriving in Baltimore at 11.50 A. M., and in Washington at 11.20 A. M.

Passengers for Philadelphia and New York continue directly through without delay in Baltimore, if they desire to do so.

Second Train at 10 A. M., Mail and Way Express, stopping at all principal stations with the United States Mail. This Train reaches Parkersburg at 9.45 P. M., where PASSENGERS REMAIN OVER NIGHT, in a new and elegant hotel, fronting the depot, resuming their journey at 8 A. M. next morning, and continuing on the United States Mail Train through to Baltimore, Washington, and other Eastern cities.

Third Train at 3.30 P. M., for Local travel to Chillicothe, Hillsboro' and all way stations between those points and Cincinnati.

Through Tickets not for sale in all principal Railroad Ticket Offices in the West. To secure all the advantages above enumerated, ask for Tickets via MARIETTA RAILROAD, and dont take any other.

If you cannot procure such Tickets, buy only to Cincinnati and there procure tickets by this route. You will always save money by this course.

☞ Through tickets, and all other information, can always be obtained at the office, No. 8 Bonnet House, of M. COLEMAN, Agent, or at the office under the Spencer House, (fronting on the Levee,) of J. B. OWSLEY, Agent, or at the regular Ticket Office, in the Little Miami Depot.

MILLER & STARR'S
NORTE-WESTERN
Type, Stereotype & Electrotype Foundry,
AND
PRINTERS' WAREHOUSE,
Corner of West Water & Spring Streets,
MILWAUKEE, WISCONSIN.
Having completed our arrangements for the above business in this city, we would invite the co-operation of the printers of this and surrounding States in to be built. Our facilities are equaled by few Foundries in the country for manufacturing type and Printer's Material; and for beauty of finish and hardness of metal, cannot be surpassed in this or any other country. The faces of our Types are entirely new, and at present approved style, and we shall endeavor to compete with our Eastern brethren in getting up new styles of Type, Borders, Cuts, Ornaments, &c. We are in daily receipt of all new faces as they are cast in the East, and in advance of any other Establishment at the West.
Being agents for some of the best Type Foundries and Press and Ink Manufactories at the East, we are prepared accordingly on hand a full assortment of every variety of material.
Orders for Stereotyping, Engraving, etc. promptly attended to.
We shall issue in the course of the next three months a new Specimen Book which will be furnished on application.
☞ Printers of Newspapers who choose to publish this Advertisement three months into sale, 1 Month, will be allowed their bills at the time of purchasing, three times the amount of our manufacture.

LESSONS IN Foreign Languages.
MR. AND MRS. L. S. H. DE CRETY, from Paris, for four years past instructors in foreign languages in Milwaukee, have the honor to inform the public that they will form classes in the French, Italian and Spanish Languages, on the 1st of September next. The course of instruction will be according to the age and intelligence of the pupils, and the classes kept strictly separate, their house being arranged with that view.
Gentlemen can take private lessons. Any of these languages can receive lessons in Reading and Conversation, Mr. De Crety furnishing books of the best French authors. Those too wishing to learn vocal music in either of those languages, will find a competent music teacher in the establishment.
The hours of instruction will be from 8 to 11 o'clock A. M., and from 2 to 5 P. M. And in the evening from half past 7 to 9, for conversation.
Mr. DE CRETY will also give lessons in French, Spanish and Italian, at his office, to gentlemen only, from 7 to 10 o'clock in the evening, on Wednesday, Saturday, the use of the Swedish and all military exercises. Persons of delicate constitution and feeble temperament, as also those confined to their offices and engaged in sedentary employments, will derive from these exercises improvement in their health, acquire strength in their limbs and find an agreeable recreation.
Mr. De Crety will also form similar classes for children, from 10 to 14 years old, at his house, or office, as parents may prefer. Fathers and mothers who desire to see their children strong, active and robust, can judge for themselves, after a few weeks trial, as to the effect of these different exercises upon their health.
The continued patronage of the public is respectfully solicited.

TO MERCHANTS.—Mr. De Crety will take charge of French correspondence to all the principal cities of France and will procure all Price Currents that they may want.
